

4.5.4	Cogent reasons put forward by party to demonstrate exceptional circumstances	1415
a)	Principles	1415
b)	Causal link between the exceptional circumstances and the late filing	1416
4.5.5	New requests filed – exceptional circumstances established	1417
a)	Objections raised for the first time in board's communication	1417
b)	Early objection raised by examining division reintroduced by board	1419
c)	Objections or arguments raised for the first time during oral proceedings	1419
d)	Clarifying claim amendment during oral proceedings not objected to by the other party	1420
e)	Filing a slightly amended claim announced in good time	1420
f)	Claim amendment addressing all pending objections and thus avoiding oral proceedings	1420
g)	Deletion of claims or alternatives in claims	1420
h)	Editorial amendments to remove inconsistencies	1421
i)	Right to be heard violated by the examining division and no other party affected	1421
j)	Amendment not detrimental to procedural economy and no other party affected	1421
4.5.6	New requests filed – no exceptional circumstances established	1422
a)	Purpose of the board's preliminary opinion	1422
b)	Preliminary opinion of the board maintaining objections or arguments raised by examining division	1422
c)	Preliminary opinion of the board containing objections or arguments that were already part of the proceedings	1423
d)	Requested amendments could already have been filed in opposition proceedings	1424
e)	New request filed shortly before oral proceedings to overcome objections in decision under appeal	1424
f)	Party initially addresses new objection raised in preliminary opinion only by providing arguments	1425
g)	Objections or arguments which do not go beyond the framework of the earlier discussion	1425
h)	Board's opinion different from that of opposition division	1426
i)	Change in board's preliminary opinion	1427
j)	Amendment not adding anything of substance to the discussion of the objection raised	1428
k)	Prima facie allowability	1428
l)	Embodiment never claimed	1429
m)	Acceleration of the proceedings	1429
n)	Change of representative	1429
o)	Representative unable to contact appellant	1429
p)	Technical problems during videoconference – not causal for need to file only at this stage	1430
q)	COVID-19 pandemic – not causal for late filing	1430

4.5.7	New facts, objections, arguments and evidence filed – exceptional circumstances established	1430
a)	Response to a new argument of the board	1430
b)	Immediately apparent that objection raised against different request also applies to request at issue	1430
4.5.8	New facts, objections, arguments and evidence filed – no exceptional circumstances established	1431
a)	Meaning of the time limit set in the communication under Article 15(1) RPBA 2020	1431
b)	Board's preliminary opinion based exclusively on earlier submissions	1431
c)	No cogent reasons why the objection had not been raised earlier	1431
d)	No new issue raised by board's comments in communication under Article 15 RPBA 2020	1432
e)	No absolute right to discussion of all objections raised at first instance	1432
f)	Change of representative	1433
g)	Further illustration of the technical teaching by means of photographs	1433
h)	Translation	1433
i)	Prima facie relevance	1433
4.5.9	Discretion under Article 13(2) RPBA 2020 – principles	1434
4.5.10	Criteria for discretion applied to new requests	1434
a)	Amendments that prima facie overcome the issues raised and do not give rise to new objections – admitted	1434
b)	Amendments that do not prima facie overcome the issues raised and/or give rise to new objections – not admitted	1435
c)	Amendments and resulting subject-matter not surprising for the opposing party – request admitted	1436
d)	Direct reaction addressing the board's objections in ex parte proceedings - admitted	1436
e)	Amendment shifting focus to feature that was previously optional – not admitted	1436
f)	Requests could and should have been filed during first-instance proceedings	1437
g)	No "last chance" doctrine	1437
4.5.11	Criteria for discretion applied to new facts, objections, arguments and evidence	1437
a)	Late submission of new facts and evidence contrary to the principle of fair proceedings and procedural economy	1437
b)	Prima facie relevance	1437
c)	Procedural economy – early and complete presentation of parties' cases	1438
d)	Procedural economy – no carte blanche to amend claims at wish	1438
5.	New submissions on appeal – case law on the RPBA 2007	1439
5.1.	Introduction	1439
5.1.1	General rule that RPBA 2020 immediately applicable and exceptions	1439

5.1.2	RPBA 2007 provisions on late-filed submissions	1440
5.2	Principles established by the case law on late-filed submissions under the RPBA 2007	1441
5.2.1	Inter partes proceedings	1441
5.2.2	Ex parte proceedings	1441
5.3	The boards' discretion	1442
5.4	State of proceedings	1442
5.4.1	General	1442
5.4.2	Procedural economy	1443
a)	Late-filed requests	1443
b)	Late-filed facts and evidence	1444
5.5	Case amended after oral proceedings arranged – Article 13(1) and (3) RPBA 2007	1445
5.5.1	Whether discretion conferred under Article 13(3) RPBA 2007	1445
5.5.2	Late-filed requests	1446
a)	Filing of requests after arrangement of the oral proceedings	1446
b)	Filing of requests during the oral proceedings	1447
5.5.3	Late-filed documents and evidence	1450
5.5.4	Absence from the oral proceedings – Article 15(3) and (6) RPBA 2007	1451
a)	Absence of applicant (patent proprietor) from oral proceedings	1451
b)	Absence of opponent from oral proceedings	1452
5.5.5	New submissions after debate closed	1453
5.6	Parties' right to submit observations on amendments – Article 13(2) RPBA 2007	1453
5.7	Communication of a board of appeal	1453
5.8	Circumstances extraneous to proceedings	1454
5.8.1	Introduction	1454
5.8.2	Change of representative	1455
5.8.3	Illness of representative	1455
5.8.4	Change of ownership or representation	1456
5.8.5	Business reasons	1456
5.9	New submissions in proceedings resumed before the boards	1456
5.10	Late submission of new arguments and lines of attack	1457
5.10.1	New arguments on appeal	1457
5.10.2	Whether amendment or merely elaboration on existing case	1458
5.10.3	New arguments and lines of attack admitted	1458
5.10.4	New arguments and lines of attack not admitted	1459
5.10.5	New documents used to back up arguments	1461
5.11	Article 12(4) RPBA 2007	1461
5.11.1	General principles – substantiation requirement – duty to facilitate the first-instance proceedings	1461
5.11.2	Relationship between Article 12(4) and Article 13 RPBA 2007	1464
5.11.3	Inter partes appeal procedure	1464
a)	Documents, evidence and objections which could have been presented in the first-instance proceedings	1464
b)	Documents and evidence admitted – appropriate and timely reaction	1466

c)	Documents and evidence not admitted by the opposition division	1466
d)	Resubmission of objections withdrawn at the opposition stage	1467
e)	Requests which could have been presented at first instance	1467
f)	Tidying up claims examined by the opposition division	1470
g)	Requests admitted – appropriate and timely reaction	1470
h)	Requests not admitted by the opposition division	1471
i)	Resubmission of requests withdrawn at opposition stage	1472
j)	Reintroduction of subject-matter abandoned during examination	1474
5.11.4	Ex parte appeal procedure	1474
a)	Requests which could have been presented in the examination proceedings	1474
b)	Admission of requests already refused by the examining division	1476
c)	Resubmission of requests withdrawn during examination	1476
d)	Feature re-introduced on appeal	1477
5.12	Criteria for consideration of amended claims	1477
5.12.1	Principles applicable to amended claims	1477
5.12.2	Withdrawal and resubmission of a request on appeal	1479
5.12.3	Clear allowability of amended claims	1479
a)	General	1479
b)	Examples	1480
5.12.4	Response to objections	1480
5.12.5	Converging or diverging versions of claims	1482
5.12.6	Unsubstantiated requests	1483
5.12.7	Discretion to admit amended claims at any stage of the appeal proceedings	1485
5.12.8	No absolute right to a "last chance"	1485
5.12.9	Change of subject-matter	1485
5.12.10	Need for additional search	1486
a)	General	1486
b)	Features taken from the description	1487
c)	Additional search exceptionally performed	1487
5.12.11	Dependent claims	1487
5.12.12	Number of auxiliary requests	1488
5.12.13	Amended claims not admitted with divisional applications pending	1489
5.12.14	Reverting to broader claims, especially those as granted	1489
5.13	Criteria for considering late-filed facts and evidence	1491
5.13.1	Legitimate reaction to the first-instance decision	1491
a)	General	1491
b)	Late-filed submissions admitted	1492
c)	Evidence of common general knowledge	1492
5.13.2	Relevance	1493
5.13.3	Complexity of new subject-matter	1494
5.13.4	Cases of abuse of procedure	1495
a)	Late-filed documents admitted	1495
b)	Late-filed documents not admitted	1496
5.13.5	Late submission of experimental data	1497
a)	Test reports admitted into the proceedings	1497

b) Test reports not admitted into the proceedings	1497
5.13.6 Public prior use	1498
a) No consideration of late-filed evidence of public prior use	1498
b) Consideration of late-filed evidence of public prior use	1499
5.13.7 Admission of submissions relating to Article 55(1)(a) EPC	1499
6. Parallel proceedings	1500
7. Termination of appeal proceedings	1500
7.1. Closure of the substantive debate	1500
7.1.1 Decision taken as the file stands	1501
7.1.2 Proceedings after delivery of the decision	1501
7.2. Interlocutory decisions of a board	1501
7.3. Withdrawal of the appeal	1501
7.3.1 Article 114(1) EPC and withdrawal of the appeal	1502
7.3.2 Board's powers to decide on issues after withdrawal of the appeal	1502
7.3.3 Partial withdrawal of appeal by sole appellant and opponent	1503
7.3.4 No withdrawal of appeal with retrospective effect	1503
7.3.5 Request for withdrawal of appeal to be unambiguous	1503
7.3.6 Conditional withdrawal of appeal	1504
7.3.7 Correction of withdrawal of appeal under Rule 139 EPC	1504
7.4. Deemed withdrawal of patent application	1504
7.5. Legitimate interest in the continuation of the grant and the appeal proceedings	1505
8. Reasons for the decision	1505
8.1. Reasons in abridged form	1505
8.1.1 Abridged reasons under Art. 15(7) RPBA 2020	1505
8.1.2 Abridged reasons under Art. 15(8) RPBA 2020	1505
8.1.3 Decisions issued in written proceedings	1506
9. Remittal to the department of first instance	1506
9.1. General	1506
9.1.1 Article 111(1) EPC	1506
9.1.2 Article 11 RPBA 2020	1506
9.1.3 Art. 11 RPBA 2007	1507
9.2. Exercise of discretion to remit	1507
9.2.1 No absolute right to have issue decided on at two instances	1507
9.2.2 Remittal and scope of review	1508
a) Primary object of appeal proceedings is to review decision under appeal in a judicial manner	1508
b) Ex parte proceedings	1508
c) Inter partes proceedings	1508
9.2.3 TRIPS	1509
9.3. Special reasons for remittal	1509
9.3.1 Introduction	1509
9.3.2 Non-examined patentability issues	1509
a) Introduction	1509
b) Primary object of the appeal proceedings	1510
c) Undue burden	1511
d) Different interpretation of terms	1512